

Harbor rules

Prohibited area

Sailing in areas marked in red is prohibited due to shallow water or because the area is restricted for our boats.

Keep distance from the shore

Please stay minimum 30 yards from the shore to avoid fishing lines getting caught in the propeller.

Speed limit buoy

Please respect the speed limit and do not pass the 10 mph buoy.

No swimming from the boat

You are not allowed to jump off the boat for swimming etc.

Base

Remember to be back at the base on time. You'll be charged extra if you return late.

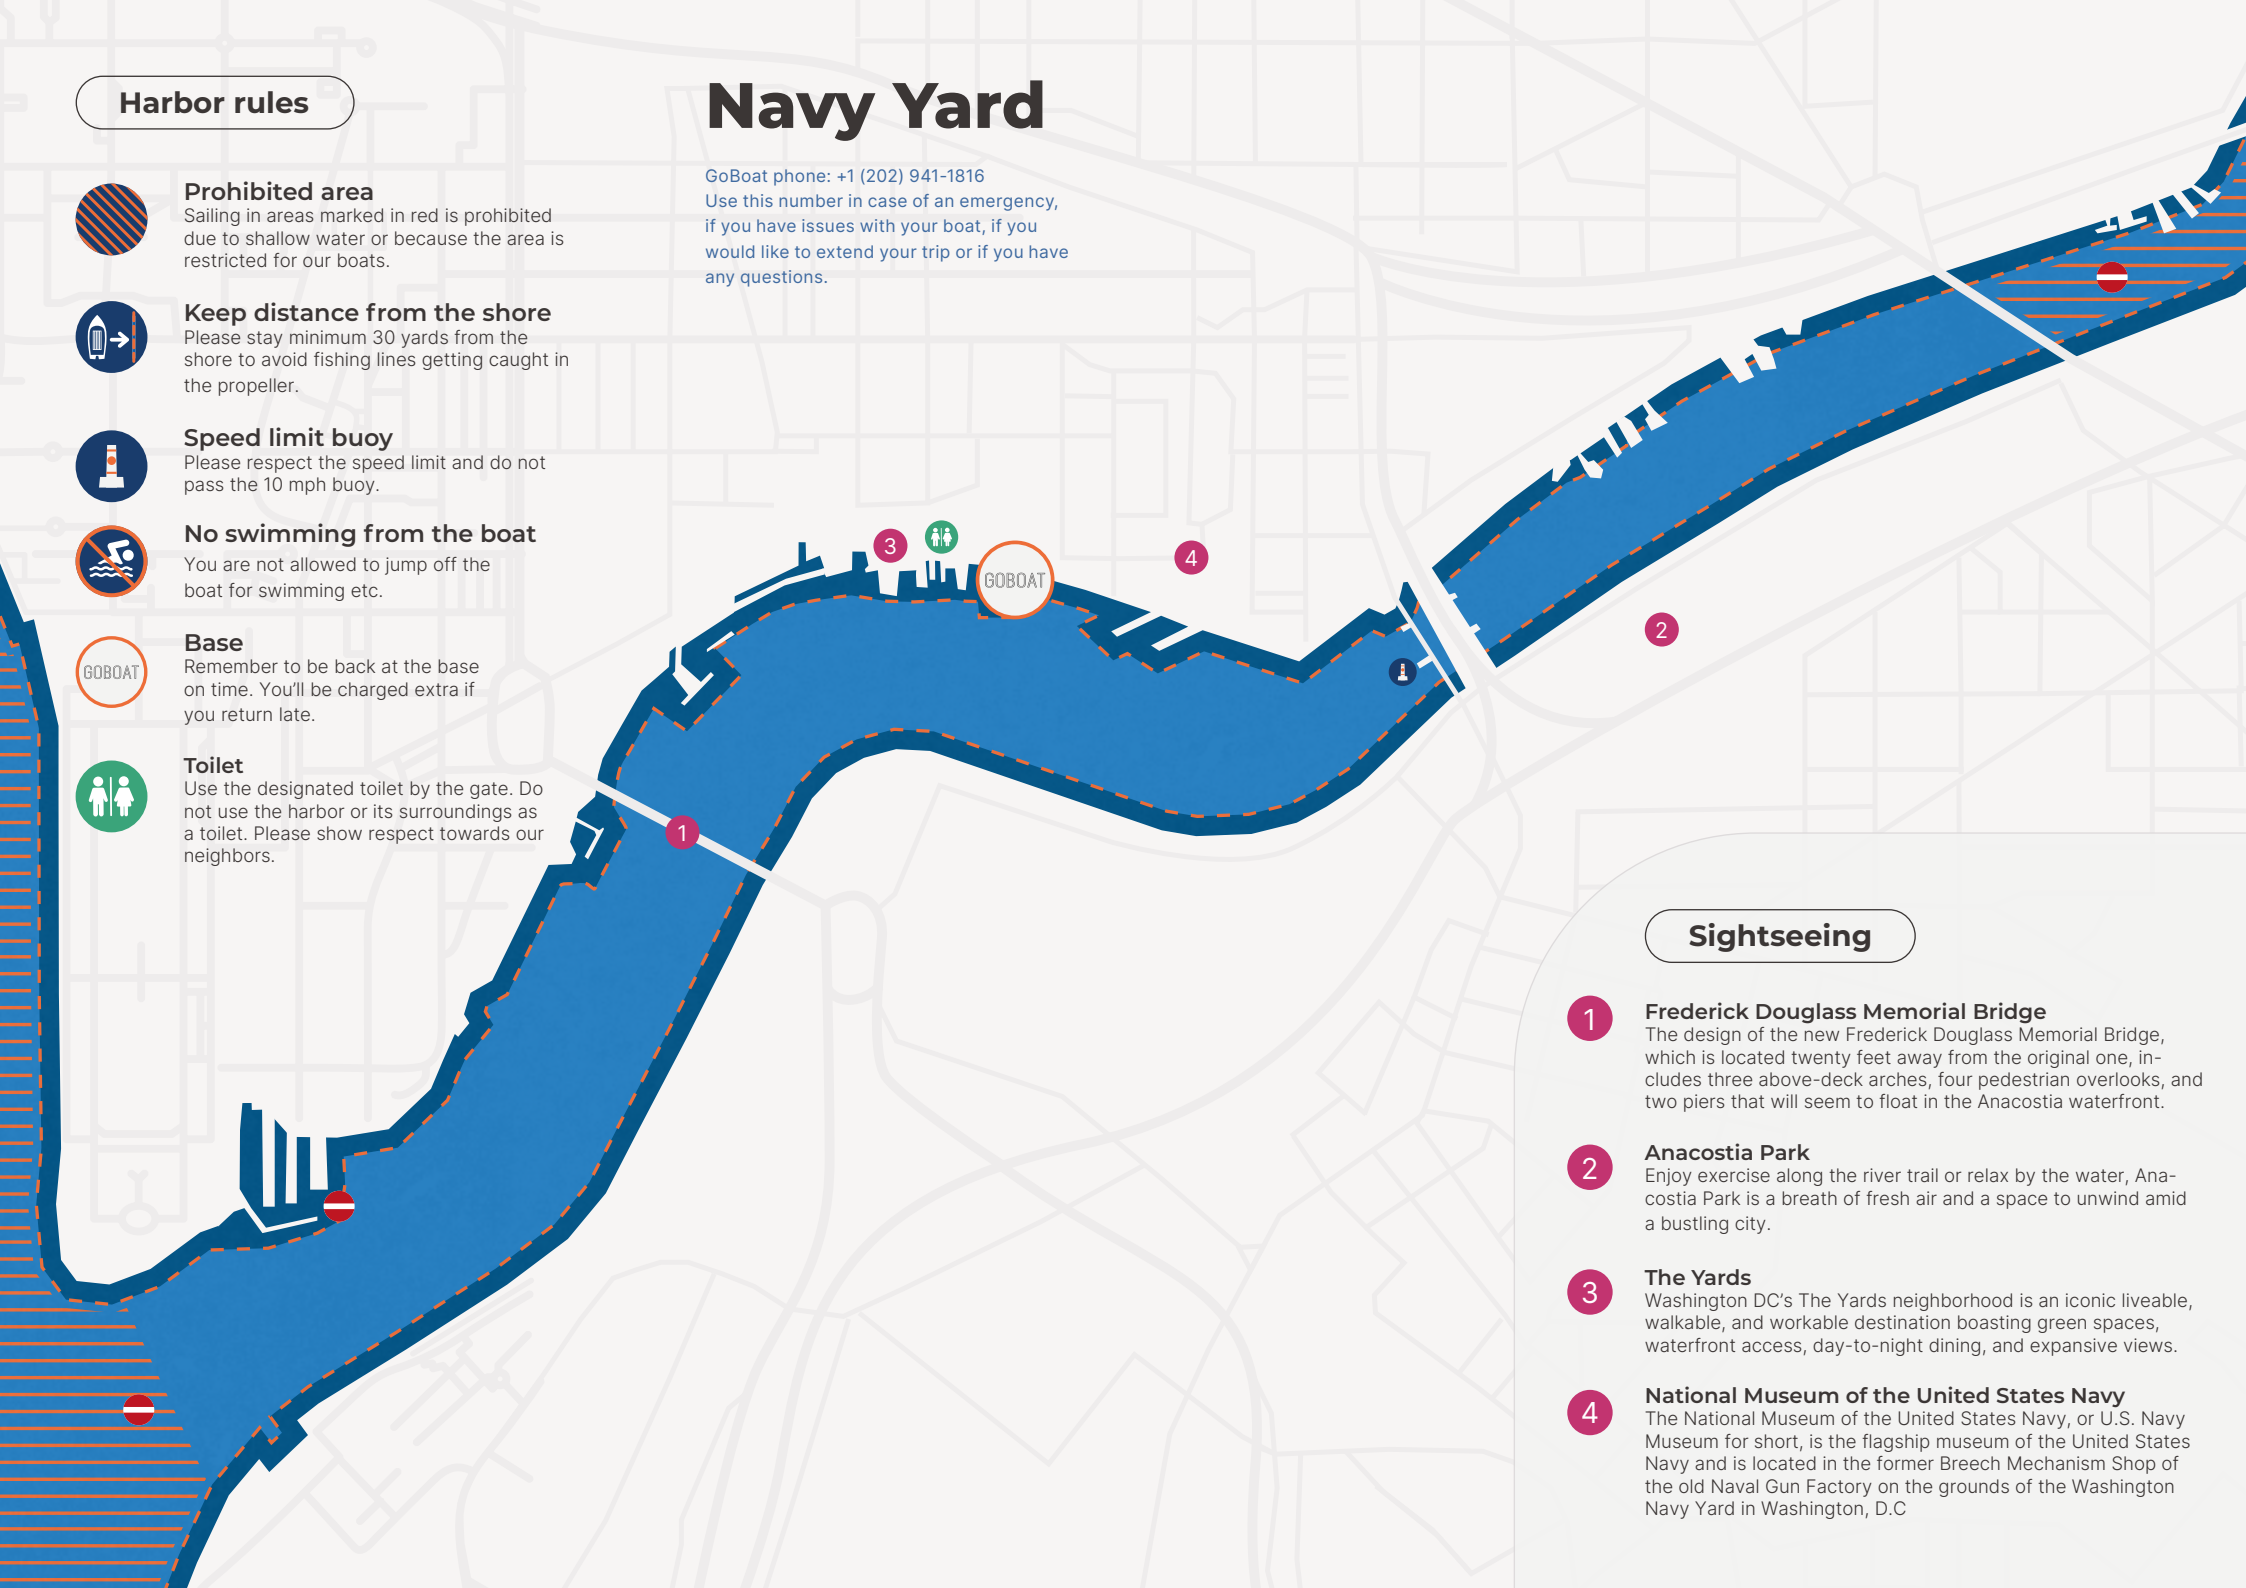

Toilet

Use the designated toilet by the gate. Do not use the harbor or its surroundings as a toilet. Please show respect towards our neighbors.

Navy Yard

GoBoat phone: +1 (202) 941-1816

Use this number in case of an emergency, if you have issues with your boat, if you would like to extend your trip or if you have any questions.

Sightseeing

- 1 Frederick Douglass Memorial Bridge
The design of the new Frederick Douglass Memorial Bridge, which is located twenty feet away from the original one, includes three above-deck arches, four pedestrian overlooks, and two piers that will seem to float in the Anacostia waterfront.
- 2 Anacostia Park
Enjoy exercise along the river trail or relax by the water, Anacostia Park is a breath of fresh air and a space to unwind amid a bustling city.
- 3 The Yards
Washington DC's The Yards neighborhood is an iconic liveable, walkable, and workable destination boasting green spaces, waterfront access, day-to-night dining, and expansive views.
- 4 National Museum of the United States Navy
The National Museum of the United States Navy, or U.S. Navy Museum for short, is the flagship museum of the United States Navy and is located in the former Breech Mechanism Shop of the old Naval Gun Factory on the grounds of the Washington Navy Yard in Washington, D.C
